OFFICIAL CERTIFICATE

I hereby declare:

to be the Greatest Principal of One Day in School History!

Signed:

This one has "elementary school chaos" written all over it.

The secret genius of Big Nate is that kids love imagining what would happen if THEY were in charge.

So instead of a worksheet, I made it feel like students have just been elected:

UH OH! ...is the funniest part!

Because kids create rules like:

"No homework ever again!"

Then they have to explain what happened next.

Result: Nobody remembered anything for the test.

Or:

"Students may ride dinosaurs to school."

Result: The T-Rex ate the bike rack.

Or:

"Recess lasts six hours."

Result: Nobody could find the school building.
